

WEBSITE PUBLISHING POLICY & PARENT AUTHORIZATION

Storyland School maintains a website – <http://www.storylandschool.com> - which contains general information about the school, our staff, and upcoming events. As part of the Internet community, Storyland School would like to publish original projects created by enrolled children, as well as photographs of enrolled children participating in various school activities, on the website. Storyland School is requesting parent authorization for allowing children’s projects and/or photographs to be published on the website. All materials we wish to post to Storyland School’s website are approved by the school Director before they are published.

NOTE: Children’s photographs shall never be identified by name on the website; however, children’s work(s) may be identified by FIRST name in order to give credit to the creator.

If you have any questions about this policy, please contact the school office.

Please complete the form below and return this page to Storyland School office. Retain a copy for your records.

I understand that anything published on Storyland School’s website is available worldwide to anyone with Internet access. I also understand that Storyland School cannot protect my child’s work or photograph against unauthorized users or copyright violations. I agree to hold Storyland School, and its officers, employees, or agents harmless for any unauthorized users or copyright violations arising from the publication of my child’s work and/or photograph published on Storyland School’s website. In addition, I release any claims against Storyland School, and its officers, employees, or agents for any damages, awards, claims, or liabilities that may arise from any unauthorized uses or copyright violations of my child’s work and/or photograph.
